THE INTERNATIONAL CENTRE FOR THE PREVENTION OF CRIME (ICPC)
IS CURRENTLY ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS FOR THE FOLLOWING POSITION:

ANALYST – URBAN SAFETY

Created in 1994 and based in Montreal, the ICPC is an international forum for national governments, local authorities, public agencies, specialised institutions and non-government organizations to exchange experience, consider emerging knowledge and improve policies and programmes in crime prevention and community safety.

The ICPC brings together some 50 members, including non-governmental organizations, police, municipalities and governments from around the world. ICPC staff monitors and analyses trends, provides direct assistance to members, and contributes to public knowledge and understanding in the field. ICPC works in collaboration with the UNODC (United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime) and UN-Habitat including the Safer Cities Programme.

RESPONSIBILITIES

Under the supervision of Research management, the Analyst will:

- Contribute to the development and implementation of various urban safety projects;
- Take charge of the collection and analysis of data related to their designated projects;
- Contribute to the development of innovative practices in urban safety and multi-stakeholder participation and co-construction processes;
- Proactively participate in the development of the organization by providing scientific and technical input to the ICPC team;
- Other related tasks.

The successful candidate must have a minimum of 2 years' experience in analysis, consultation and participation activities, and must have a background in urban studies. Experience in urban security, CPTED (Crime prevention through environmental design) and knowledge of mapping methods and software are assets.

In addition, the candidate must be bilingual (French and English) and have excellent writing skills in both languages, mainly in French. Understanding of another language, notably Spanish, is an asset.
