NOTICE OF APPOINTMENT

Isabelle Lonvis-Rome Appointed President of the ICPC Board of Directors

Montreal, January 27, 2022 – The International Centre for the Prevention of Crime (ICPC) is delighted to announce the appointment of Isabelle Lonvis-Rome to the presidency of its Board of Directors.

Ms. Lonvis-Rome is a magistrate, who since 2018 has been a senior civil servant in charge of equality between women and men, and Inspector General for the French Ministry of Justice. Among other things, she led the coordination of an action plan to fight violence against women and oversees the implementation of its measures by the Ministry of Justice following a series of round tables on marital violence that took place in 2019. Author of several works on equality between women and men and on the judicial and prison systems, specifically on the right to justice and on social mediation, she has also taken part in recent years in many conferences on professional equality between women and men and on marital violence.

“It is with great pleasure that we welcome Isabelle Lonvis-Rome to the presidency of the ICPC Board of Directors. Her extensive experience will contribute significantly to the development and promotion of violence and crime prevention strategies and practices” said Ann Champoux, Director General of the ICPC.

Members of the ICPC Board would like to take this opportunity to thank Ms. Valérie Sagant for her generous involvement and unwavering support during the last two years.

About the ICPC

Located in Montreal, Canada, the International Centre for the Prevention of Crime is the most important organization of its kind. Founded in 1994, the ICPC’s mission is to promote the adoption of international standards regarding crime prevention and criminal justice to enhance... community safety and improve the quality of life for all. The ICPC, an international non-governmental organization, works with member States and international and regional organizations and authorities at all levels of government, and maintains an active presence in the Americas, Europe, Africa, and Oceania. The ICPC offers a wide range of knowledge – technical and conceptual – on the subject of crime prevention and related policies, practices and tools to reduce the risk factors associated with crime, violence and insecurity.
